CCS New England Continues to Support U.S. Service Members

Donates Holiday Care Packages to Oversees Troops for Tenth Consecutive Year

NASHUA, N.H. – (Dec. 23, 2013) – CCS New England, a leading audio visual systems integrator, supported U.S. Troops this holiday season for its tenth consecutive year.

All CCS employees joined in the effort by donating requested items and packaging them for a U.S. Army Unit of 40 men and women currently stationed in Afghanistan. The employees teamed up and assembled boxes filled with everything from snacks and toiletries to magazines and socks.

“We’re so thankful for the sacrifices our military men and women constantly make for us. We want them to know we are thinking of them and are very grateful for their service. This is the least we can do for them,” said Chris Gamst, vice president of CCS New England. “We look forward to continuing this tradition and further supporting our military throughout 2014.”

As an audio visual systems integrator, CCS New England designs audio visual solutions for its customers within the areas of corporate, government and education. CCS provides everything from design integration and installation to training clients to use audio visual technology and equipment. CCS offers multiple product lines to enhance presentation effectiveness and customer experiences including SMART Board™ interactive whiteboards, Panasonic displays, Crestron and AMX room control systems, Epson projectors and Cisco video conference systems.
